

ISSP Scientific Session

Sat May 1st / Sun May 2nd 2021

Melbourne Australia

Sun May 2nd
5am - 7am

Berlin
Germany

Sat May 1st
9pm - 11pm

London
UK

Sat May 1st
8pm - 10pm

Boston
MA, USA

Sat May 1st
3pm - 5pm

Omaha
NE, USA

Sat May 1st
2pm - 4pm

Los Angeles
CA, USA

Sat May 1st
12pm - 2pm

Session 1 - Concussion: What Should the Sport Psychiatrist Know?

Concussion Definition: Advances in defining injury

Jamshid Ghajar, MD, PhD,
FACS

Clinical Professor of Neurosurgery

Moghadam Family Director of the Stanford Brain
Performance Center

President of the Brain Trauma
Foundation
Palo Alto, California

To present pathophysiological models underlying concussion

To discuss the signs and symptoms of concussion

To review the DoD
Concussion Definition Project

Diagnostic Testing in Concussion: Quantifying injury

Jeffrey J. Bazarian, MD,
MPH

Professor of Emergency Medicine and Internal Medicine

University of Rochester
Medical Center
Rochester, New York

To discuss the use of serum biomarkers in concussion

To discuss computer-based tools in assessing concussion

To discuss potential role of cutting-edge devices in assessing concussion

Neurobehavioral Sequelae of Concussion

Silvana Riggio, MD

Professor of Psychiatry,
Neurology, and of Rehabilitation and Performance
Medicine

Icahn School of Medicine at Mount Sinai
New York, New York

To review acute and chronic behavioral presentations
after concussion

To present a systematic approach to psychiatric assessments

To discuss the multidisciplinary care of concussion patients with behavioral complaints

Session 2 - A series of brief presentations on the latest research and developments

Incorporating interventions for dysfunctional exercise into eating disorder treatment – a qualitative survey of attitudes in the UK

Caz Nahman MbChB,
MRCPsych, PhD

Consultant Psychiatrist, Nottinghamshire Healthcare NHS Foundation Trust,
UK

Practical aspects of working with pro sports; What I wish somebody had told me

Marie Claire Bourque, MD,
MSc, FRCP

Mental Health & Peak
Performance, Toronto Maple
Leaf Hockey Club, Canada

Clinical Assistant Professor,
Department of Psychiatry,
Cumming School of Medicine,
University of Calgary, Canada

Sports and Cultural Integration

Danielle Kamis, MD

Adjunct Clinical Assistant Professor, Stanford University School of Medicine,
California, USA

Loneliness in elite athletes and non-athletes: A comparative meta-analysis

Paul Gorczyński, PhD, CPsychol, AFBPsS

University of Portsmouth, School of Sport, Health and Exercise Science

Cindy Miller Aron, LCSW, CGP, FAGPA
College of Osteopathic Medicine of the Pacific & COMP-Northwest,
Pomona, CA/Lebanon, OR, USA

Returning to Play After COVID-19: Concerns of Collegiate Athletes

Virginia Iannone, Ph.D.

Stevenson University,
Stevenson, Maryland, USA

